IN THE HON'BLE ELECTION TRIBUNAL, ALLAHABAD.

ELECTION PETITION NO. 324 OF 1957.

Shri Lal Rudra alias Lal Rudra Narain Pal—Petitioner.*Versus*Shri Keshava Deo Malviya and others—Opp. Parties.

The humble petition of the abovenamed petitioner most respectfully sheweth:—

Under the circumstances, in their combined effect, so far as they have developed upto present, the petitioner considers it better to apply for permission to withdraw the election petition, as it will save trouble, expense and waste of public time.

The petitioner believes that the petition as drafted stood unassailable, and the eliminated portions could be restored in better condition by fresh application to court itself, or by having resort to the High Court or the Supreme Court, as necessary, but the worry and trouble is far in excess of future advantages that could be achieved even after success of election petition.

The matter has not gone further than the filing of defence, and perhaps framing of issues in the absence of the petition. (Petitioner).

Prayer

It is prayed that the election petition may be allowed to be withdrawn without costs.

For which as in duty bound the petitioner shall ever pray.

The Security deposited may kindly be returned.
